Ka Unuhi 'Ana

Hearken to us, Heavenly Father, you who are most powerful, sacred, and compassionate.

Here we are, the descendants of our Queen, gathered before you in all humility.

Thank you for this wonderful day; be with us; take care of us; give us life, and bless each one of us.

To those, the writers of this book, the artists, our kūpuna for their knowledge and wisdom and to the supporters who silently worked behind the scene, bless them.

As we prepare to release this new book, NIKK #3, lead us in the right path that we should follow.

All these we humbly ask of you in the name of thy Son, Jesus Christ, Amen.
